MAKE KILLING AT JUAREZ

AMITY WINS RACE FOR MAIDENS AFTER BEING BACKED INTO FAVORITISM.

Public Picks Five of the Day's Winners and Layers Loze Heavily-Weyanoke Aided to Victory by Jockey Loftus' Skill.

El Paso, Tex., February 27.—The layers at Juarez were hard hit in the first race today when the three-year-old Amity, owned by A. B. Spreckels, won after being backed down from 6 to 1 into 2 to 1 favoritism. She scored handily over Jolly Tar and books like a filly that may turn out to be a useful ration for the second banding out to be a useful ration for the second handles.

The public picked five of the six winners today and the layers lost heavily.

The weather was a bit chilly, but the attendance remained good.

Jockey Halsey scored with two of his mounts.

Acamen and Russell McGill.

The winner of the fourth race turned up in Weymoke, handled wonderfully well by jockey Loftus.

Fitzgerald made the pace and when Loftus urged Weyanoke the latter came on to win by a neck.

F. J. Grefer recently sold Commagnit to R. G. Martin and the horse ran in the colors of his new owner, today.

The following work-outs took place over the Juarez track this morning, with the "dogs" up and the course heavy:

Runs Good Race, but Is Beaten by the Improved Sir Blaise at Palmetto Park,

Charleston, S. C., February 27.—Threatening weather culminated in the breaking of a severe storm just before the fifth race at Palmetto Park today, and the heavy downpour caused considerable discomfort to the patrons of racing. Palmetto Park was well-nigh flooded. Prior to the rain the course was in excellent condition and some good sport was witnessed by a fairly large attendance. The layers again had a profitable experience as a result of the failures of the best backed horses. The smart set hit the layers extensively in the closing dash on H. G. Bedwell's Michael Angelo, which they backed from an opening of 5 to 2 to evens. Conditions were exactly to his liking and he made a show of his opposition.

As a result of the adjustment, entries with weights were given out to the newspaper men for their respective publications and the restrictions in vogue during the past week on press matter were also lifted.

J. W. Johnson today finally consummated the deal for Amoret and Banorella with C. D. Ray and is now in possession of those horses. J. Brannon, who formerly trained the Ray horses, retains Emily Lee and Cu Bon.

S. N. Holman, who is promoting a new race track at Montreal, was a visitor here today. He was accompanied by N. F. Duquette, of Montreal.

C. J. Lynch, of Columbia, was also a visitor at Palmetto Park.

G. Bedwell's Michael Angelo, which they backed from on opening of 5 to 2 to evens. Conditions were exactly to his liking and he made a show of bis opposition.

The Bedwell stable was decidedly in the limelight throughout the afternoon, three members of that establishment finishing first and another third. The Bedwell successes began in the initial dash, when Berkeley upset calculations by driving home a neck in front of the favorite. Veneta Strome. Billy Vanderveer, owned by A. M. Orpen of Toronto, and trainged by Mr. Bedwell, won the fifth race in a sharp drive.

Mud Sill was an intended "good thing" that had his chances on his driving best and his chances of the condition of the favorite. Veneta Strome. Billy withdrawel or independent of the property of the condition of the c opinion among the accredited good judges at head-quarters is that no horse could have done better during the winter, added to which he resembles more than ever his sire, Isinglass, in character and appearance. Of the dark horses, the stable companions, Harry of Hereford, brother to Swynford, by John o' Gaunt out of Canterbury Pilgrim, and the gigantic Young Pegasus, by Chaucer out of Princess Melton, are getting well forward, and both are considered colts of great promise. On the other hand, White Magic, a grand-looking son of Sundridge and La Vierge that has yet to make 'his first bow to a public audience, has not been doing so well, and is, in fact, turned out at Childwice bury.

so well, and is, in fact, turned out at Childwicabury.

Beyond offers of 1,000 to 70 on the field the Lincolnshire Handicap has been seldom mentioned, but no doubt matters will become more lively when the various candidates get into active work. Already some of them have started galloping, as, for example, Berrilldon, which is looking and going well at Newmarket, but as concerning the son of Berrill and Contribution the sword of Damoeles is always hanging over his head, in so far that under any strenuous exertion he is liable to rupture a blood-vessel. His best achievement last year was at Ascot, where he simply smothered Castleton, Etheric, The Story, and others in the Trial Stakes, and, needless to add, a return to that form would ensure his making a big show here. He failed to maintain that excellence afterwards, whereas Castleton put up some smart performances, and thus is accounted for no doubt the fact that in spite of the four-length beating at the Royal meeting the American is called on to meet him on twelve pound worse terms by comparison, Young Alfred Sadler is paying close attention to Le Touquet, which it is hoped will repeat the Duke of Sparta coup of four years ago, and many clever people are among the adherents of Tuxelo, which is well handleanned. is paying close attention to Le Touquet, which it is hoped will repeat the Duke of Sparta coup of four years ago, and many clever people are among the adherents of Tuxedo, which is well handicapped, although he will have to concede seven pounds more to the Freemason Lodge candidate than when he beat him upwards of four lengths for the Coventry Handicap at the Kempton Park meeting. That was the last appearance of Lord Carnaryon's colt, which, however, had previous victories to his credit at Doncaster, where, in receipt of seventeen bounds, he romped away from Wrack in the Cleveland Handicap and again in the Herne Oak Plate at Windsor, though he was a little out of his element when tackling Jingling Geordie at four pounds for the Kingselere Stakes at Newbury. At Lincoln the son of Soliman and Violet Schomberg is, as far as Wrack is concerned, penalized eleven pounds, and the difference should bring them close together: indeed, may suffice to turn the scale in favor of Lord Rosebery's handsome little horse, which has also wintered extremely well. It would be no new experience for his lordship's pretty hoops to figure in the van, for well I remember the big coups which were landed over Controversy and Touchet respectively. Percy Peck has a second string to his bow in Branceneth, which, however, is not an easy horse to train, but he has been fired since he ran fourth for the Markeaton Handicap at Derby last November, and may do better in the future, though he can have nothing in hand here for Mr. Raphae's cast-off, which was sold during the winter to Mr. L. Clow for 460 guineas and has since been trained by Fallon.

It seems not unlikely that of Mr. S. B. Joel's continuents when the Neuropaste tended to the can be a continuent who have the continuent the Neuropaste tended to the can be a continuent when the Neuropaste tended better in the fallore.

cast-off, which was sold during the winter to Mr.
L. Clow for 460 guineas and has since been trained by Fallon.

It seems not unlikely that of Mr. S. B. Joel's contingent the Newmarket-trained Polkerris will stand down in favor of one of the Alfriston pair. Long Set or St. Nat, of which the one has his full measure of weight, while the other will need to mend his manners before he can inspire much confidence, well as he is treated on his smart two-year-old form. As regards the top weight, he had all his work cut out to beat Sunsnot at even weights in the Craven Stakes at Epson, and I fancy he will find himself overtaxed in the endeavor to give six pounds to Soanish Prince, which, I should say, is surely the superior of the natty little son of Sundridge and Fota. The Prince is indeed not by any means harsily treated with 125 pounds and if only the downs at Wantage permit of his being thoroughly trained he is one that should be marked formidable, as he has wintered splendidly, and, it will be remembered, wound up last season with a fine performance in the Peveri of the Peak Plate at Derby, Mr. J. B. Joel has a second chance with White Star, which is unquestionably well bandicapped, if only he could be persuaded to put his best leg first, but as to that there must be considerable doubt after the several experiences of the bygone season. Unde Pat is credited with having done wonderfully well slace he went to Newmarket, and there can be no doubt that he has more than once demonstrated himself a really smart horse in home trials, but his public form has been disappointing. Seven times he ran last year without once hitting the mark, but it may be well to remember that he was second to Long Set for the Lincolnshire Handicap, and instead of meeting at thirteen pounds, as on that occasion, they

NEW YORK RACING IN SIGHT

NOW PRACTICALLY ASSURED THAT REVIVAL WILL OCCUR AT BELMONT PARK IN MAY.

Saratoga and Other Meetings to Follow, According to Plans Under Consideration-Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend Tracks May Be Cut Up.

New York, February 27.—At a private conference with newspaper men today a prominent official of the Jockey Club announced that counsel have advised the racing associations to go on and race, and it now remains for the clubs and men interested to get to gether and arrange a subscription fund, as was done in 1909 and 1910. It is nearly positive now that Belmont Park, on May 30, will see the resumption of racing on the big tracks. The next meeting that is nearly positive will be at Saratega. James Butter will be here March 2 and it remains for him to say about Empire City. P. J. Dwyer may decide on racing at Aqueduct in September, and Belmont Park may occupy part of October.

It is asserted on good authority that the new state racing commission, soon to be appointed by Gov. Sulzer, will be made up of Charles Kohler, Montague Gerrans, of Buffalo, and W. L. Lewis, of the Morning Telegraph.

It is said that Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend can not remain much longer without being cut up into building lots. There is not much expectation of either opening again for racing. The Futurity may be run at Saratoga, as in 1910.

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, in an interview today declared that the French Jockey Club, in barring horses and mares from the Stud book unless they can be traced for eight crosses to European ancestors are not to be criticised. Those whose horses and mares will not fill the requirements must accept the ruling of the French Jockey Club, in Sarat County practically has decided not to take the Shane case to the Court of Appeals, but on the other hand it was said that District Attorney Wysong of Nassau County practically has decided not to take the Shane case to the Court of Appeals, but on the other hand if was said that District Attorney Gropsey of Kings County would carry the metter to the highest court in order to avoid complications.

"All we need for the reopening of our properties," said an officer of a New York race course, "is the same measure of liberty inside the track gates as on t

NOTES OF THE TURE

The death of You Know, chestnut colt by Pros-pero—Queeu Florentine, foaled in 1909, has been reported to the Jockey Club.

Perry Belmont has resigned from membership in the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. J. R. Fell of Philadelphia has been elected to fill the vacancy.

The Jockey Club stewards have tabled jockey McTaggart's application for a renewal of his riding license. McTaggart was suspended last year for the rough riding that culminated in the death of Worth. Washington Park on the Delaware River, a portion of the estate of the late Duke Thompson, a famous racing promoter of Gloucester, N. J., was sold at auction this week for manufacturing purposes for $85,800.

Robert Levy, manager of the Jamestown Jockey Club, recently applied to the stewards of the Jockey Club for approval of dates for a fall meeting at Jamestown from November 13 to November 29, Pending developments in the east, the application

Was taried.

National Steeplechase and Hunt Association li-censes have been granted to the following trainers: James E. Owens, Timothy F. Cabill, Silas Veitch, D. F. Kinney, William H. Henry, Also to the fol-lowing jockeys: James Lynch, William Kohler, William Booth, Edward Tiee, Edward Klenck.

Mr. Wertheimer's Oeillet Blane, ridden by Wallow ran third in the race for the Prix Montdore at Enghein, in France, Tuesday. There were eight starters, Mr. Pfizer's Ekwanok, ridden by jockey V Powers, won the Prix de Briannais. A twenty franchet on the American owned horse paid seventy-one frances.

The Idaho Senate has passed the bill submitted by one of its committees making poolselling and bookmaking a misdemeanor after June of this year. The bill will now go to the house for concurrence. There is said to be a disposition on the part of members of the house on the elimination of the time clause, so that the bill may become effective immediately on passage and approval.

Double wages for a week for each of the more than 3,000 employes of the carpet factory in which he was a partner were provided for in the will of the late General Stephen Stanford, of Amsterdam, N. A new rule to apply to selling races over the courses under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club has been proposed by George P. Eustis which will tend to bring races of that character closer to their real intent. In effect it provides that any horse entered in a selling race may be claimed for the selling price, plus the value to the winner including his entry fee, at any time after the entries are officially published. The former rule was that only such horses as went to the post could be claimed.

are here separated by a wider margin to the extent of sixieen, which is more than liberal allowance even for four lengths' casy beating. Mr. George Edwardes will probably provide a faucied candidate in either Daly's or Lesto, both of which are gifted with fine speed and favorably handicapped, and Cigar is one that claims favorable mention on some of his running. He is, however, one of the shifty sort, and it is no recommendation that the astute Whitcombe people let him go at the Newmarket becember sales, even at the substantial figure of 2,000 guineas. Brandiminfine, which has been hurdling with some success and will, in consequence, be one of the fittest, should run well, as he has only one pound more to carry than when he was second two years ago to Mercutio, and in the same category may be included sobieski and Ormachus, likewise Mary the Second, which distinguished herself by taking the principal prize at Nice. With no more than ninety-seven pounds on her five-year-old back she cannot complain of being overburdened, but she is none too reliable, and, more than that, this is a race seldom won by one of her sex.—"Vigilant" in London Sportsman,
